Consciousness : You experience what you are awake to

This book has been largely about wealth consciousness. But what is consciousness ? It is being awake to something. Wealth consciousness is being awake to wealth. Wealth has always been there, of course, but you may not have been awake to it. You cannot experience what you are asleep to. Consciousness is the set of attributes and capabilities that enable you to be awake to a state of being or a set of experiences. This book has been about the things that enable you to be awake to the wealth that is already there. And the happiness that is already there, as well. So, my friend, wake up!

The material wealth of a nation is simply the manifestation of the collective wealth consciousness of that nation. That applies to any group of people, from families to corporations to continents and worlds. The least conscious person in a group of people will bring down the experiences of the most conscious. So, a wise person does whatever they can to raise the consciousness of the group at large so that they themselves may experience more. It is self-defeating to do nothing or to lower someone else's wealth consciousness.

Several studies show that many people who win over $1 million in lotteries end up worse off financially than they were before they won. They lose all that money in amazingly short periods, and end up even worse off because of the new debts and liabilities they accumulate. See, it is not money that makes a person wealthy. It is their wealth consciousness. People without wealth consciousness are unable to get wealthy, even when a huge sum of money comes their way in a lottery win. On the other hand, people with wealth consciousness cannot fail to have money and wealth for extended periods. They may go broke occasionally due to an error in thinking or a higher choice, but they always bounce back up. They have no fear of getting broke, because they know even if it happens it is temporary and they are designed to come right back up. You can take away all their money and within a year, they will be wealthy again, or at least be on their way to wealth. Luck has nothing to do with it.

The greatest creative forces become available when your conscious, subconscious and superconscious selves are in harmony in their choices. You make them so by raising your consciousness and awareness to all three levels of your self. You become aware and conscious of things you used to do subconsciously and so on. You can do this by deciding to be aware. Decide to be mindful and deliberate, watch your thoughts and actions and dreams, instead of walking about daydreaming in a daze and doing things on automatic. It would also be a good idea to consider Vipassana (mindfulness) meditation. It is one of the best ways of increasing your awareness.

You see, your Self makes choices but if you are not aware of them, you will not know what they are. These choices are the superconscious ones. You start becoming aware of them by honoring your feelings (not emotions or thoughts masquerading as feelings, but genuine feelings). You also become aware of your superconscious through meditation.

You also make choices consciously and you make some subconsciously. You can increase your awareness of your subconscious choices by deciding to be aware, watching your thoughts. For example, in the past you may have had idle thoughts of fear and indecision regarding a particular topic. These thoughts went on in your head all the time as you did other things; they were background thoughts. Well, now what you should do is watch your thoughts and do not allow any idle daydreams that keep tossing about an issue like a wild monkey in a cage.

The point is that if for a particular decision these three levels all chose differently, your results will obviously be mixed and confusing to you. The way to fix that is to raise your awareness on all levels.

The Source of all creation is a field of infinite possibilities and creativity. Our true Self is one with The Source, in the same image and likeness. When we are conscious of that and believe it is so, we tap into this field of infinite possibilities and our inherent creative abilities.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

You must have wealth consciousness that knows no poverty (or, more accurately, the illusion of poverty). Work on it until the idea of poverty is laughable, until to think that you can possibly become poor is a ridiculous idea to you.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

You create money by increasing your value inside you. You do that by reading books like this. You also do that by remembering your true Self that is in the image and likeness of The Source. Abundant by nature. You then experience money by exchanging the value you have built in you. Exchange it with others by providing services, goods and money to others in exchange for their services, goods and money. Remember that people have a unique purpose or ability within them. They fulfill part or all of this ability or purpose; they create something out of and by it, by using their internal value. Their creations are therefore unique, and the exchange of these unique creations is what brings about the paper or cash money. Paper or cash money is just a medium of exchange for our uniquely developed internal value. Build wealth by building your inner value. Experience wealth by carrying out your purpose and ability using that built up inner value. It all lies inside you. To build external wealth, build internal value then exercise it. It is that simple. The biggest components of internal value are instantly available to all. These are faith or certainty, imagination, inquiry, and focus. Activity, taking action, translates inner value into outer value, material wealth.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Wealth follows those with wealth consciousness. It is not the other way round. Wealth consciousness comes from states and thoughts of prosperity and wealth full of confidence. It does not allow any moment at a ll to think poverty thoughts of limitations, doubt and scarcity, nor to have states of fear and disbelief.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

The earning of money has nothing to do with the direct manipulation of the papers you now call money. It has all to do with wealth consciousness.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Wealth is a predictable result. The causes of wealth are predictable and accessible to all without exception.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

To the extent tha t you have wealth consciousness inside of you, outside things will enable you to experience wealth, or hinder you from experiencing wealth. This is the same for happiness. To the extent that you have happiness inside of you, outside things will enable you to experience happiness, or hinder you from experiencing happiness. And it is the same for everything else – peace, love, non-judgment, non-condemnation, non-segregation, and so on.

The collective consciousness is very influential on your own wealth and happiness. You create many of the events in your life. But some events, especially the large events, happen because of the thoughts and consciousness of people around you in your society and world. You have heard this before in many forms (where two or more are gathered...). You are not alone; you are not separate from everyone else. You as an individual matter a lot to the whole, and vice versa. Your extent of wealth and happiness is co-determined by yourself and everyone else. Please understand this carefully. No one can stop you from being happy and wealthy. That is because only you alone choose to experience everything as good or bad all on your own and no one can possibly take away that internal choice from you. A nd only you can choose to have wealth or happiness and no one can take that from you except yourself. But that said, you are more likely to meet good and happy opportunities and events if the people around you are of a suitable consciousness. Think of your mind as an extension of your spirit, your body as an extension of your mind, your immediate environment and other people as an extension of your body, the world as an extension of your environment, and thus the whole world as your own larger extended body. And the same goes for everyone. Thus, whatever 'good' or 'bad' that is in your extended body affects you to the degree that it is 'away' from you. So, it is very much in your interests to spread wealth and happiness consciousness around the world. That spreading of wealth consciousness 'improves' the larger extended body as a whole, for what happens to one part of the body affects the whole. The advancement of just one individual in society causes a series of advancements of varying degrees for all others in society. So to raise yourself, raise others and you will automatically rise as well. Even telling a few people is enough, but telling as many as you can tell shall shift this universe dramatically. This book is a start – share it. Use the Internet, email and SMS text messaging on your mobile phone. We have invented these affordable communication networks around the world as a testimony of our increasing realization that we are one, and as a tool to keep growing in that realization. So use these networks, remember them.

One of the best ways to become wealthy and happy is by practicing meditation every day. Meditation puts you in touch with your higher Self, and the teachings in this book become you, experientially, in every cell of your body. They no longer are theoretical constructs for they become you. You no longer have to struggle to practice and remember them, for they are you. Start meditating, and one day soon, you will have this happen to you. The recommended meditation technique here is Vipassana (mindfulness/insight) meditation.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

All other things held constant, to the extent that an individual or society has and develops wealth, health and happiness consciousness in them and in those around them, so will they have wealth, health and happiness.

Now it is time to go to a wider dimension. It is time to look at what it is that has this consciousness. It is time to look at the Self, the builder of the universe, the builder that uses space and time as materials to create experiences. This is your life...

The Self : The architect of the universe

It is now time to look at First Cause, that from which everything arises. Know thyself – so has it been said throughout the ages.

Your Self, your spirit, or your soul, whatever you are used to referring to it as, is the real you. The rest are just your tools. Your personality and body and ego are just temporary tools of your Self, that which will always remain even after you drop everything else.

Your Self is First Cause of your entire world. Any state you find yourself in must be caused by Self. Your thoughts come from your Self. Your desires come from your Self. Can you think of anything in the world that does not arise from the spirit? Nothing can exist outside of spirit; nothing can exist outside of Life. Even wealth has First Cause. Now you see why it is crucial to know what spirit is, so that you may know how to be more in touch and aware of First Cause in your life so that you may create the experience of wealth and happiness in your life.

We have already touched on spirit many times before in this book, especially when we were referring to states of being. Now we shall look at two aspects of Self. One is the actual spirit side of you, and about Life. We shall go into that very briefly. The other is a general overview of things you do here as a personality that are healthy for you and your Self and are helpful to the having of wealth and happiness.

You are First Cause...

People attract what they are, not what they want. They attract what they love and what they fear. They sustain what they judge and condemn. What they resist persists. What they accept and examine mindfully releases them. What they truly believe is what becomes real in their lives.

See good in everything. Look at the light and you will never see the dark.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Change is the only constant in the universe. Everything changes at every moment. Life is all about change, and with change comes growth. You will one day leave even your own body. You can never truly own anything here on earth. Thinking that you own something results in that thing owning you. The thought of ownership causes resistance to change, resistance to the workings of the mighty universe in its infinitely intelligent fashion. The minute you start thinking you own something, it owns you. For you to enjoy and use prosperity and wealth wisely and fruitfully, you should replace the idea of ownership with one of temporary custodianship of something, or having the use of something, of keeping something, of taking care of something. This is what puts you ready to go with the flow without loss and suffering when the time comes for change to work its inevitable ways. So much suffering is caused by resistance to change. Resistance to change shows that a person believes that it is possible to not have a thing, to lose something, yet on a Higher level, on the level of Spirit, you have it all at all times.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

What are you holding yourself back for? You have it all. You can experience any part of your Self that you choose, so long as you choose to and choose believably. With faith, everything is possible. It is all yours anyway.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

What are you waiting for?

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Calmness is the fruit of wisdom acquired over time. Calmness affords true control and precision of thought.

Celebrate life!

Fear of the unknown is paralyzing, yet totally unnecessary. Only in the unknown can you find growth, freshness, and creation. The known, the past, is already experienced – it is gone. A past moment is a moment gone, lingering only in our memories. Sometimes we keep recreating the past, over and over again, sustaining it out of fear of losing it. But new growth, new creation, lies only in the unknown. Learn to love and cherish the gift and power of the unknown. Choose this. And you will find yourself traveling on a wonderful journey of exploration and growth. Remember always that your Self knows everything – nothing is unknown to it. It is only your ego, with its limited vision of space-time, which knows only fractions of the All. Trust your spirit – your Self can never harm you. You are your Self, not your body and ego. All suffering is caused by fear and by believing strongly in the illusions of this world. Let go.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

The unknown carries tremendous opportunities, knowledge, potential and rewards. Step into it often.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Consistency of purpose. Curiosity. Confidence. Courage. Cheer. Certainty of intention. This is all good stuff.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

What are you holding back for?

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Let go.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

At every moment and situation, with very thought and action, ask yourself two things: (1) is this the greatest version of the grandest vision I have ever had of myself? (2) What would love do? Then adjust your thoughts and actions based on the answers to these two questions. This is a very fast way to growth in all areas of your life.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Question everything and rule out nothing. Be willing to suspend everything you know. You cannot discover new things until you stop telling those new things what you think they should be. Let them tell you what they really are!

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Exercise your body daily. Your body is an energy system and an extension of your mind. Exercising opens up the energy channels in your mind and body. Remember, thought is energy, and your mind is all over your body, in every cell of your body, not just in your brain. Exercising your body, every day makes, your mind and thoughts a great deal better.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Change is the only constant. Love it. Embrace it. Find its gifts that it brings to you. Change. It is the only game there is anyway, the game of life, the game of changes.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

To the extent that a person has and exercises their wealth consciousness, that person finds themselves in the company of opportunities, businesses, situations and people that enable her or him to manifest into physical the amount of wealth consciousness they have and choose to exercise. Luck and coincidences have nothing to do with it. What some people call luck and coincidence is the precise execution of an infinitely intelligent universe that works in amazing ways to fulfill exactly what we imagine ourselves to be, believably.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

You are your own luck.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

What is 'can'? What is 'should'? What is the line between can and cannot, should and should not? Is there really such a line? Or do you, we, make it up?

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

You are the magic.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Change is the order of the universe. Life is change. Growth and evolution is what Life is all about. Clinging on to a thing is not only futile; it is harmful to you. You cannot win a game where you resist change.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Now that you know the truth, the laws that drive the universe unflinchingly, hold this truth in your thoughts at all time. And you will not be affected by the physical world again. You will become its master instead of its slave. The truth will set you free.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Life is all about growth, expansion of consciousness. Life, The Source, God, never has it by design or plan that you should not expand your consciousness. In fact, the whole design of Life is for consciousness to keep expanding. It is in the whole universe's best interests that you expand your consciousness, including your wealth consciousness. Life seeks to express and experience itself to enable that evolution and growth. Wealth, if you consider it clearly, does a whole lot to enable that growth. Once you have wealth, you have freedom to explore many other aspects of life you would not have had a chance to without it. The true nature of all life is to increase life. Anything to the contrary of that is a going against life. Your desire for wealth is very natural and necessary for you to move on to higher steps. Not only is it natural, it is fully supported by nature if only you follow the laws of nature. Ancient texts have often said it is the desire of God that you get rich, and nature is friendly to your plans, so long as you are in harmony with it.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

We live in a realm of relativity. Everything else outside of you exists, in a most clever way, to help you know yourself and re-create yourself anew. It is most clever because that statement is true for each being. Without short people, a tall person would never know they were tall. Without a 'bad' person, a 'good' person would never know they were so. And vice versa. You need a frame of reference, and an opposite, to know what you are and to choose what to become next. The day you start seeing everyone and everything as a bringer of a certain gift for you, and you seek to find out what it is, and you realize you are also there for their self-definition sake and you willingly give them as they ask, is the day you will start moving very rapidly towards more wealth.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Love yourself, your customers, your world, your family, everyone and everything. Love is the strongest power.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

So, you wish to be wealthy. That is great. But who are you? That is a very deep question. Ask yourself, “Who am I?” Your first answer may be ‘I am Jane’ or ‘I am Joe’, or whatever your name is. Then you might say something like, ‘I am a 28 year old female, Croatian, short-tempered but happy, sometimes doubtful but generally confident...’ and so on. Really? Is that really you? Each of those things started some time. Your parents gave you a name; you acquired your habits, personality and disposition over time. You were born with few of these things, and you were conceived with none of them. In other words, none of the early things are you – you leave them all here on this plane of existence when you move on to the next plane. So they are not the real you, your Self. They are ‘jackets’ you wear over your Self, jackets that you take off as time goes by (people change) and some you take off when you leave the earth.

Try this: ‘I am a 28 year old female’. Is your Self really 28 years old only? Could it have been there before you were conceived into this Earth? Was it definitely male or female? You do not have to know the answers to these questions for you to get wealthy. But it is important to recognize that, just as we said and saw that you are not your circumstances, you are also not some of the things you have all along thought you were. These ‘jackets’ are helpful and useful, but sometimes they hold you back. People who identify too much with their jackets, especially negative ones, place themselves in a prison, a box, a position where they are unable to step outside the box for fearing that their self will be violated, or their self is not capable, while all along it isn’t their true Self.

The next time you catch yourself saying ‘I can’t do that because I am...’ and so on, re-examine the ‘I am...’ bit and ask yourself whether that is really you, or a jacket you picked up along the way, a jacket that you know for sure you will one day take off, a jacket that you might as well take off now. Your body cells change daily, your thoughts come and go, your ego and self-image change. They are not the real you. Your Self is the timeless Being that takes on all these jackets of illusion, jackets that should serve you, not hinder you, jackets that are really under your Self-control, although sometimes or often you forgot this. The illusions, the jackets, are very necessary. They are the tools by which your Self experiences itself in a physical plane. Think about what you know so far about spirit and quantum physics. All physical objects look separate to our limited five senses but in fact, they are part of a large pool of energy that is not separated at all. Spirit is also just One, individuated into ‘individual people’. It is individuated, not separated. Like the way the oceans of the world are individuated into waters with different depths and tides and characteristics, yet they are all one ocean. All your spirit knows is love, for it cannot kill or injure itself – it is immortal, it is also all One. It also cannot go ‘broke’ for it has everything, pure wealth and abundance.

Why is it necessary for spirit to have an earthy existence then? Imagine that you were born in a very rich land where everyone was super-wealthy, no one lacked anything, and all desires were fulfilled instantly. How would you ever experience the thrill of having wealth? It would be impossible. You would know you were wealthy, but this would be meaningless because you have never compared it with being poor, and have never risen out of poverty and become wealthy. See? You would need to first become broke in this super-wealthy land, then appreciate how uncomfortable that felt, then work your way back to wealth and feel the thrill and experience of wealth. You cannot experience something, even if you know it, unless you create the experience of it’s opposite. This is the position spirit is in – it knows all but cannot experience it unless it creates a realm of illusion of not knowing and not having. Let us go back to our example. If everything in that super-wealthy land were wealth, you would be unable to get poor. So, you would have to create an illusion where you see only extremely small segments of your whole world at a time. Instead of seeing that you have a car, a road, house, and a shopping mall all at one go, you would only see the car. The illusion would limit your vision so you can only see the car at first. Then after working, you start seeing the house. And so on. Then when you see it all, you feel the thrill, the experience of what you already know and have but could not experience. This is the purpose of the earthly physical experience. Another way to look at it is to think of something you really like. Think of your favorite food or even having great sex with your loved one. If you ate your favorite food all the time, at every moment of your waking and sleeping, or if you did the same with sex, do you see how the experience would cease to be an experience and become a knowing without experience, for it would be all that is. Your entire eating experience would be comprised of eating that one favorite food and you would finally know no other eating experience and the favorite food would cease to thrill. This is a very simple example – it gets very complicated at the highest spirit level, but at least you get the picture.

Still not convinced? Ok, here is another example – the experiencing of love. Spirit is immortal and at one with all. It only knows love but cannot experience it because there is nothing to experience it against. At the ultimate level of Spirit, all that exists is One and the One knows that it is all one; it has no illusions of separation. This is what some people call God. Let us think of it as Being, Life, or The Source, the All That Is, the I Am. All That Is, Life, Being, is exactly that – all. It is not a he or she or it, it is All. There is nothing else except the One, so there is nothing the One can use to experience itself against – unless it individuates itself. The individuation and illusions start at lower levels. It is necessary to create a limited-consciousness physical plane where the illusion of separation exists and it is possible to ‘kill’ a body, and hurt, and so on. And in this physical plane where it is possible to act in unloving ways and do harm, love rises, and its fruits and the experience of love is then possible.

Now you see that the illusion is very necessary. You, your Self, needs it and uses it. The only problem comes in when your ego makes you believe in the illusion. The ego was designed to create the illusion of separation. It is necessary. But when the illusion is taken as the reality, it no longer becomes a tool with which you can experience the greatness of your Spirit and all that it has. It instead becomes a painful trap. You stop ‘pretending’ that you do not have wealth and then experience the thrill of having wealth, and instead start ‘believing’ that you really do not have wealth. You stop pretending that you are separate and at risk, and start believing that you are. This is the cause of much suffering. Learn to use the illusion instead of believing in it. This is what Jesus meant when he said ‘be of this world but not of it’.

Simply being aware of who you really are will change your life amazingly to the positive. You are Spirit with a body, personality and ego. You are not a body, personality and ego with a spirit.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Definitely most importantly, have joy in your life. Lighten up, do not take things so seriously, do not be too hard on yourself and others, and let joy into the lives of people. Joy is natural, it is the soul expressing itself, it keeps the energy circulating, and makes the whole ride worth it! Joy multiplies everything, it attracts. And it is fun. Enjoy !

Decide at all times to not worry, to not get frustrated, to not wish you were somewhere else doing something else, and to not fear. All these are statements of not having, and they perpetuate the state of not having.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Before you do anything, always ask yourself, is this who I Am, is this who I wish to define myself into a higher next?

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

It is all inside of you.

- I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

For everything you see around you, you are at cause. Why then would you hate something around you now? If you don't wish to have it around any more, ask yourself what part or aspect of yourself is causing it, and you will soon discover something about yourself that you would find beneficial to change.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Nothing happens around you that you are not wholly or partly a cause of at some level of your whole Self, even though you may not be conscious of the choices you are making that are causing your world.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Condemnation and judgment keep in place that which is condemned and judged.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

You are not your past, any of it, at all, unless you insist you are.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Your soul is the part of you closest to The Source of All That Is. It is an individuation of The Source, in the image and likeness of The Source. Your soul knows and perceives a lot more than your physical body and mind does. Your soul communicates with your mind though your body using feelings and intuition. Listen to your feelings and intuition always if you wish to speed up your growth and reduce unnecessary setbacks and suffering.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

You are a soul with a body, not a body with a soul. You are a soul, with a body, a mind, a personality and an ego. Knowing this and knowing what a soul is makes a huge and empowering difference in the acquisition of wealth.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Meditation places you in direct contact with the unified field of consciousness, the unified mind, and infinite intelligence. Through meditation, a completely new world will open up to you. Through meditation, you will find calmness, wisdom and inspiration. It is yet another way towards wealth, and many other things. It is the home of infinite wealth consciousness, and you are welcome to it any time.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Inspiration and desire come from the soul, seeking expression and manifestation into the physical world. One fast track to get to where you are going is to pay attention to your desires and inspirations. Develop your intuition.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Mind, body and spirit are all connected. One way to think of it is to see the mind as the subtlest part of the body, and the body as the most solid part of the mind. By living in this knowledge, by treating mind, body and spirit with equal importance, care and attention, you grow fastest and get wealthy fastest.

The root of a bulb which shall produce a white lily is an unsightly thing; one might look upon it with disgust. But how foolish we should be to condemn the bulb for its appearance when we know the lily is within it. The root is perfect after its kind; it is a perfect but incomplete lily, and so we must learn to look upon every man and woman, no matter how unlovely in outward manifestation; they are perfect in their stage of being and they are becoming complete. Behold, it is all very good...It will make an immense difference with your faith and spirit whether you look upon civilization as a good thing which is becoming better or as a bad and evil thing which is decaying. One viewpoint gives you an advancing and expanding mind and the other gives you a descending and decreasing mind. One viewpoint will make you grow greater and the other will inevitably cause you to grow smaller. One will enable you to work for the eternal things; to do large works in a great way toward the completing of all that is incomplete and inharmonious; and the other will make you a mere patchwork reformer, working almost without hope to save a few lost souls from what you will grow to consider a lost and doomed world. So you see it makes a vast difference to you, this matter of the social viewpoint. "All's right with the world. Nothing can possibly be wrong but my personal attitude, and I will make that right. I will see the facts of nature and all the events, circumstances, and conditions of society, politics, government, and industry from the highest viewpoint. It is all perfect, though incomplete. It is all the handiwork of God; behold, it is all very good". – James Allen

How do you start doing all these things? Just start doing them. Now. It is that simple. Just do it. Now.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Your Truth is always truest to you. Truth is personal, and ever changing. Even though you should surround yourself with experts, advisors, and good books, always follow what rings true to you. Do not follow external sources blindly – check them with your Self.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

The Source always talks to all of us through all forms of internal and external communication. Always in all ways. It is us who shut out that communication. Start paying attention to the movies you watch, the TV shows you see, the magazines you read, the people you talk to, the events of life that you watch, and the intuition you have. All these, and many more, carry messages for your advancement, messages from The Source. Simply be advancement.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Act as if you are already wealthy, for you are.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

There are no real limits other than those you set on yourself.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Become unstoppable by refusing to stop.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

It's a little like wrestling a gorilla. You don't quit when you're tired, you quit when the gorilla is tired. - Robert Strauss

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

You have more potential in you than you can possibly use up in an entire lifetime or in several lifetimes even. Stop making up excuses and believing in limits.

By our inherent nature, we have limitless potential and abilities. 'I can't' does not exist, it is an illusion. Nothing outside yourself can hold you back. What is holding you back, then?

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Your soul is that part of you that is closest to God, The Source. Your soul speaks to your mind through feelings and intuition. Listen to your feelings and intuition. Honor them over any conflicting thoughts and emotions. Be careful though, because some thought and emotions camouflage themselves as feelings. But be still and you can distinguish between them.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

The desires that you suppress become depressions, and that leads to even worse. It can sometimes lead to unhealthy ways to fulfill those suppressed desires. Express your desires, and you create life and joy.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Persist in following your feelings and intuition. They are your closest communications with The Source.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

You are a soul with a body, not a body with a soul. See this clearly and live your life at all times with this in mind and your power increases.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

'I Am'. This is your new way of making statements. 'I Am...'. The Universe absolutely listens to whatever you place after the phrase 'I Am'.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

You need nothing outside of yourself to be wealthy.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Freedom. It is your nature. Keep it and express it. Allow others to keep and express their freedom.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Stop choosing what has been chosen for you by others and start choosing your own.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Meditate everyday, even for just 15 minutes twice a day. This connects you with The Source, lets you know your true nature, brings inspiration, and shows you the ultimate reality.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

You are who you say you are.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Experiences are within you, not outside. For example, two people can take the same roller-coaster ride in an amusement park. One walks out of that ride very happy and thrilled, and the effects of that, over a lifetime, are positive, for everything is a cause of something else. The other person may walk out of that same ride full of fear and shock, and the effects of that, over a lifetime, are negative. See, the same ride was experienced in two very different ways by two people. No experience exists outside of the person experiencing. Even what you would consider a terrible event is joyous to someone somewhere. The point is, chose to experience things positively, and your life will be positive. The meaning of everything is the meaning you give it and your experiences are what you say they are.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

The next time a situation comes up, see it as the illusion it is, decide the experience you will have of it, then re-create yourself anew so that the illusion changes to you liking. This is so for financial situations and all other situations in life.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

A healthy person is usually in a better position to create wealth. Health is an indication of agreement between your body, mind and spirit. Lack of health is caused by a disagreement between these three: for example, a mind with negative thoughts and anger causes an unhealthy body. A body that is not rested, nourished, exercised and kept free of toxins kills the mind. Listen to, notice and honor what signs your body, mind and spirit give you.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

A daily combination of exercise and meditation raises your energy levels and positive emotions, leaving you in an extremely powerful position to create wealth and growth.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Remember 'I Am'. The universe, The Source, manifests to perfection all your 'I Am' statements and states of being made with certainty. The only time there is in the universe is Now; the present time. 'I Am' works and is in agreement with the ever-present time of Now by being in present tense. 'I will be' barely makes it.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Freedom. Maintain yours and allow others theirs.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Do not take life too seriously. Enjoy it! Play with it like a child. Laugh at every corner. Joy is your true nature and aligning with your true nature boosts your acquisition of wealth.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Rest and eat properly. Recharge your mind and body's energy system.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

You become more conscious of your unconscious aspects by raising your awareness. You do this by deciding to be aware of all your thoughts and actions, watchful and guiding of them. You enhance this greatly by meditation, a good one being the Vipassana (insight) mindfulness meditation technique.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Here is an amazing truth: as you enrich your inner self with enlightenments, your outer self will grow correspondingly richer, yet you will become more and more indifferent to riches, and riches will let go of their obsessive hold on you. You will finally become a naturally and automatically wealthy person with the carefree abandon of a child, and you will enjoy freely.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Desires indicate to you things that you have a built-in ability for. You may never have piloted an airplane before, but if you have a desire to do so, it shows you that your Self has the ability and nature to be able to learn and pilot a plane. It truth, your Self knows all there is to know, but a desire shows you that you, at the higher level of your soul, are fully supporting that desire to pilot planes and the whole universe will be there to assist in it manifesting. It is advisable for a person to follow their desires in business as well – this way you have proof that you will be able to do what you desire, and you will enjoy it. Desires also indicate to you which parts of your Self that are calling out for a tention and evolution, growth, or working out to perfection. Desires are signals from the Self.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Let us revisit time. You now know what time is. It is an illusion created by the way your consciousness sees small portions of the whole space-time continuum at a go. Remember the example of the football field in the chapter on Time. You saw that an object on that field sees events taking time as it moves across the field from one event to the other, but the field itself sees all events as being on it simultaneously. For the field, there is no time, only an ever-present moment of Now whereby all events (all objects on the field) are taking place at the same time.

In that example, your consciousness is the object on the field. So, what is the field ? It is your spirit, or soul. You may have imagined that your spirit is the same size as your consciousness, but in fact, it is much larger than that. It covers all aspects of your life, even those that you are not awake to, not conscious of. It is right now in your past and future, but you are only awake to the part of it in your present. Your spirit is eternal and its presence is timeless, but your consciousness is not. It is multidimensional while your consciousness is usually four-dimensional.

The point here is this: your spirit communicates to you through intuition and feelings. It knows your future, all possible combinations of it. But it needs your consciousness to experience what it knows. In fact, it knows everything, but it needs consciousness in a physical plane to experience what it knows conceptually. Your Self knows exactly what time each event in your future will take place, exactly what you need now to make it take place then. But your future is not fixed. It changes with every choice you make. But whatever choice you make, it knows the series of events after that. And if you wish to get to a certain point in your life in future, it knows how to get there exactly, step by step.

There is an old saying that says ‘when Spirit commands, the universe obeys’. To spirit, everything is instant, for it is all over the ‘field’ at the same time. A big reason that you experience non-instantaneous gratification of your wishes is because you may not be listening to spirit. The main reason that things seem to take time to become from when you wish them to be to when you experience them is that you may not be listening to spirit. If you were aware of what spirit is choosing at every stage, and you know this through intuition and feelings, you would choose the same, and as soon as you choose, you would find that what you chose has popped right in your face, ready to be experienced. Try to see this. Your spirit has everything instantaneously. There are no delays between choice and having. But your consciousness usually experiences a delay. That delay is caused by differences in choice between what your ego, your personality here on earth, chooses, and what your Self chooses. Remember, you are your Self, but you also have an ego and personality and mind. So all choices are yours, but your spirit choices are the most powerful, so to speak, yet all choices are acted upon by the universe. If your Self chooses to experience a choice called A1 and your ego chooses A2, you will get to A2 but you will find a 'delay' in 'time' due to the 'confusion' both choices pass on to the universe. But if you choose A1 and spirit chooses A1, then you will find no delay at all. People now call these occurrences synchronicity. It happens when you think of something, or a person, and immediately when you think this, that same thing or person 'coincidentally' appears or calls you just right then. And you say, "Wow! What a coincidence!" But it is not a coincidence – it is just unison between spirit choices and ego, mind and emotional choices. All your other parts chose what your spirit part chose, and the result of the choice was instantaneous.

You see, your desires arise from spirit. Spirit chooses just the right sequence of events to arrive at a desired end. Remember, you are your spirit, so these are your choices. But you have many components and levels, some that you are not conscious of unless you choose to be. Fear is in the world of ego, so is emotions and non-detachment and so on. These things inhibit instantaneous manifestation of your choices, even if you were to know what spirit is choosing. And fear is false evidence appearing real. Emotions are past conditioning, they are reactions instead of creation, and life is about creation. Non-detachment rises out of fear, out of illusion that loss and failure is an actual existence.

Learn to be aware, intuitive, detached, and creative instead of reactive, and start seeing fear as false evidence appearing real, and you will start to experience more and more of your choices the instance you make them or very soon after you make them. Learn to trust your intuition. Realize that you are a soul, and your true nature is indestructible and all knowing, there everywhere and you have all. Your body and ego are just illusions made to enable you to experience your Self. You at the level of spirit are in your future even right now as you read this. Why then would you fear the next moment? It is already taken care of by you. And you cannot possibly hurt yourself. Even death, the thing that people fear most, is senseless to fear. Think about it: if Spirit was done with its body, what can the body possibly do to prevent spirit from leaving and taking away life? Nothing! If spirit chooses to move on, that is it. it cannot be 'trapped'. And what can the body do to leave the spirit if spirit still needs body? Nothing! Spirit is in past, present and future and can see things that body cannot. Body cannot conspire against spirit. Do you see how ego fights a fruitless war of fear against death and everything else. Do you see how fear itself is the destroyer? Spirit loses nothing, it cannot possibly lose. It knows that even after the body dies, spirit is still intact as it was before and it is all good. It is ego that fears death, and only because death is unknown. People who know death cease to fear it, as you may have heard.

Now, think about your birth. Just as you may not be aware of the all the choices you are making as spirit, just a few of them, you most likely are unaware of the choices you made with regards to your birth. That does not mean there were no choices made. You chose a purpose, as we saw in the chapter on Purpose. You had many purposes, desires, and wishes or further growth in various aspects. You chose the exact right circumstances, body, configuration, and location to be born in to fulfill your desires, purposes, choices for growth, and to stop believing in certain illusions. At every moment, you sent yourself the right people and things in your life to take you to the next step. Sometimes your ego refused to take them, but never the less you sent them. Do you start to see how it all works? If you are still not convinced, think about this: why do people say, when they are thinking of suicide, 'I can't live with myself any more'? Look at that statement. There are two people in one. It is like a person saying 'I cannot live with this other guy any more'. Yet it is two 'individuals' in one. One of them feels immortal and desires to end association with the other, which it knows is mortal and the one where the suffering is coming from. Deep within everybody, there is knowledge that we are an immortal soul with a mortal illusionary body and ego. It is in believing in our illusionary part as the real part that all suffering comes from. It is when we live in the illusion instead of using it as we came to do that causes pain and lacking. The illusions are very necessary; they are beautiful gifts, but start using them instead of living in them.

Vipassana (insight or mindfulness) meditation takes your awareness to the level where you can watch your subconscious mind create thought. You can observe your sponsoring thoughts. It gives you a chance to 'fix' your subconscious and ego through a process called mindfulness. It also takes you to levels beyond the subconscious. It is a wonderful tool.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

You are your spirit, not your body, personality, conditions, or anything else. Yet, your spirit is eternal and All That Is. Your spirit is real, You are Spirit, You are Real. The Real creates the Illusion, not the other way around.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

The spirit or soul chooses a purpose or purposes when it chooses to manifest itself as a human being on earth. This purpose is –co-chosen with all other spirits, with the One. It chooses what it wishes to experience in this physical plane. It gets a body and mind to experience these things. Now, it communicates to the body and mind through desires and feelings. But it never enforces its choices. Body and mind are free to choose whether or not to experience those desires. Often, out of fear or past conditioning, they chose not. Yet the desire does not go away; it remains until fulfilled. When the body and mind are in disagreement or opposition to the soul, a person will experience dissatisfaction. When body, mind and soul agree, the creative force is phenomenal, 'waiting' ends, and joyous experience occurs without resistance. The soul then knows itself experientially! At all times you are free to choose what you wish to experience. And at all times, your soul communicates to you, but you can choose not to listen, as many people have often done in the past.

All other things held constant, to the extent that an individual or society lives as souls with bodies, minds and egos, instead of the other way around, so will they have wealth and happiness.

The greatest advice that can be given to you now is this: meditate daily. If you do not go within, you go without. Meditation takes you in to meet your Self and infinity. It cannot be explained, only experienced. Talking about infinity, let us take a brief look at the One...

One : All That Is

Hinduism taught it in a different way. Buddha does the same in a different way. Tao did the same in a different way. Jesus and Mohammed taught it, in a different way. Quantum physics teaches it in a different way. Just about every spiritual teacher, sage, quantum physicist and religion teaches us, it its own different way, that we are all one and by acting in that awareness we move forward fastest, most richly and least painfully. This is nothing new, but often we have refused to listen. Now, in your quest for wealth and joy, you may wish to look at this again.

Everything is all One, the same Being, individuated in different guises. In other words, everything is a localized point in and of The Source, of The All That Is, of God. Nothing can possibly exist outside of and separate from The Source. The individuation and the illusions of separation are necessary, as we saw in the chapter on Self. But they are only great tools when used as tools. When they are believed in as realities instead of illusions, they destroy and cause unnecessary suffering and inadequacy.

Let us look, very briefly, into this oneness. Once you realize, feel, and act from this position of oneness, you will start seeing that you already are one with all the things you desire, and with all the people and things that will bring wealth to you. You will see that you are the one making the request for your desires, the same one communicating that request, the same one fulfilling that request, and the same one experiencing the manifestation of your request. Hence, you need not worry. The illusion that you are not the same one is there just for your thrill and experience. This chapter will only take a brief look at this oneness, merely to give you evidence and to start you thinking about it. It will merely start you on a journey that only you can take, for it cannot be said, only experienced. We are all One...

You are one with The Source, and nothing is difficult or denied from, by, and to The Source. The universe is friendly to your desires. Nothing is impossible, if only you believe.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

You can never permanently own anything on earth. Life is change and One is all there is. Ownership is a detrimental state of mind that allows what you think you own to own you. Again, here on earth, what you think you own ends up owning you, possessing you, taking away a part of your freedom. Think about that for a moment. Everything is One. How, then, can you own a part of the One ? How can your leg own your hand? Your leg can play with your hand for a while, but it cannot own it. This works the same way with you and the rest of life. When you think you own something, you chase it about to prevent the loss of it, a chase that is fruitless. Hence, it owns you.

Instead, think of yourself as a custodian of things until it is time to not be their custodian. Whether you like it or not, when the time comes or when your life on earth moves on, you will have to release all these things. Even your own body is eventually released from its present form. So enjoy, share, and have these things, but do not think that you are their owner. You can be that, but you cannot really own that. It is all One, and One is always changing.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Everything and everyone is connected. All life is one. What happens in Kabul affects you, somehow, wherever you are. And what happens with you, the thoughts you have and so on, affects everyone else everywhere, somehow. So, for your own sake, think, act and be as One.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Superiority and inferiority is not in-built in people and things. Seeing things in terms of better or worse is a judgmental weakness. This is especially a weakness of nations, whereby one government will consider itself superior to another, especially economically and systematically. It is also a weakness of social classes. An extremely high amount of wars, corporate collapses and societal divide have been caused by the idea that 'my way is better than your way'.

Disharmony is costly and never profitable on the long -term for anybody. Harmony is extremely profitable. You can avoid disharmony by looking at everyone around you not as better or worse compared to you or anything else, but as different. In other words, one entity's way is not a better or worse way, it is just a different way. This is a much more peaceful and profitable approach to everyone and everything else. Being special is not the same as being better. An entity can be special, but that does not making better.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

If you wish to always be in harmony with the incredibly powerful laws of the universe, simply act as if the whole universe is one unit with no separation between its seemingly separated components. For example, to know how to handle a business opponent in a way that will profit you the most, act as if your opponent and you are one. Treat him or her that way

There is not a person alive who is not capable of greatly contributing to the well-being of this planet. Just changing your attitude can affect the world around you. – Susan Jeffers

It is in your best interests to do your part to ensure that people all over the earth have wealth consciousness and joy. Many thinkers and scientists are beginning to show that an individual's thoughts affect the whole world's thoughts. An individual is responsible for what happens in the world and to everyone on it. The ancient Greeks had a similar concept - Gaia. It has been mentioned by many philosophers all over the world, from ancient Greece by Plato, to ancient Asia and the Far East. Modern scientists and thinkers in various fields of science are also starting to study and show that we are all connected. These connections are being found in various forms and in various fields of science. These findings include those by scientists such as Dr John Lovelock, Peter Russell in his book The Global Brain Awakens, the British biologist Rupert Sheldrake in his book A New Science of Life, Howard Bloom in his book Global Brain, and many others. If you wish to be wealthy, you can do so on your own. But you can do so a lot easier and to a much larger extent, by far, if you help the world attain wealth consciousness.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

It has been said before in many places that the reason the One chooses to individuate Itself is this: In the absence of That Which Is Not, That Which Is, Is Not. Think about that.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

So the wrong-doer cannot do wrong without the hidden will of you all...And when one of you falls down he falls for those behind him, a caution against the stumbling stone. Ay, and he falls for those ahead of him, who, though faster and surer of foot, yet removed not the stumbling stone...The murdered is not unaccountable for his own murder, and the robbed is not blameless for being robbed...Yea, the guilty is oftentimes the victim of the injured. – Kahlil Gibran

Let us re-visit quantum physics briefly. We saw that sub-atomic particles are what make up the physical universe. We also saw that these particles have intelligence. We saw that this pure energy has intelligence. It also has remarkable properties, properties such as being able to be in two places at once, to move from here to there without crossing the gap in between, to travel back and forth into time, and so on. We also saw that we were in relation and collaboration with these particles, for what we chose to observe is what becomes from this energy pool. Now, what do you suppose these energy packets are? What is pure energy ?

Before we attempt to answer that question, let us look at The Source, All That Is, what many call God. We have been told that we are children of God, in the image and likeness of God, and that God is All That Is. Now, let us go back to where God was the absolute Only, before 'creation'. In truth there is no such straight line time-line but let us imagine that there is, for the sake of study. Ok, so we are now looking at God before creation. God was out there, all alone. Remember, in the absence of That Which Is Not, That Which Is, Is Not. In the realm of the absolute, there only exists One and nothing else to compare Itself against. So experiencing Itself was not possible. The One had to individuate into a Duality, a realm of Relativity. When the One did that, there now was a 'this' and 'that'. Now this duality could allow experience. Day could experience itself against night, and vice versa. The same was possible with all the 'opposite' dualities or individuations, such as man and woman, up and down, left and right, and so on. And each of these dualities had their own smaller dualities. For example, a woman or man had the dualities of sad or happy, and so on. And even happy had its dualities of very happy and not so happy, and so on. And the total of these experiences is the experience of the One. But for our discussion now, we are looking at the Initial Duality that first came of the One, before that Initial Duality split again.

Now let us get back to the question of what energy is. Ok, so from One, we have the Initial Duality. Now let us call that duality Spirit and Anti-Spirit. By the way, quantum scientists have discovered that sub -atomic particles all have an opposite. So, a proton has an anti-proton and so on, but in our part of the universe, the anti-particles are not present because anti-particles destroy particles when they meet. Scientists talk of these as the matter and anti-matter of the universe.

Now the part of One that is Spirit individuates itself again into infinite little parts, or spirits (by the way, individuation is not the same as separation). Quantum physicists have also seen that although they call a sub-atomic particle a particle, it really is not a 'thing', yet it is the building block of things. And although a sub-atomic particle has a wave like behavior and a particle-like behavior, there are no particles running around, nor waves fluctuating. You cannot visualize a sub-atomic 'particle'. You can only calculate it and experience it. Sub -atomic particles behave as spirits would. Why do they do that? Now do you see what Pure Energy is? It is spirit. Everything in this part of the universe is energy. Energy is matter – one and the same thing ($E=mc^2$). Yet, spirit is energy. And hence, spirit is matter. You see, there are no clear lines of definition and separation. All that is really is One. Individuation is not separation. Think of individuation as the having of many dimensions, not the separation into many separate things. So think of the world as dimensions or facets of the same One, not as separate things.

The other part of the universe, for everything is a duality, is the anti-universe, made up of anti-matter. But that is another topic all together. The point is that you now can trace the origins and explanation of the universe, and its link to spirit and to all. You now remember who you really are, who we really are, and why you, we, did all this. You now also know that what The Source is, You Are. It is a very complex topic and you do not need to understand it fully. Just knowing the truth is enough; you do not need to explain it in detail.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

All other things held constant, to the extent that an individual or society as One, so will they have wealth and happiness.

Again, the greatest advice that can be given to you now is this: meditate daily. Soon, maybe on your first meditation, maybe later, you will come to experience this oneness, and you will be amazed at it! It cannot be spoken off, only experienced. This is a journey only you can take on your own. Meditation takes you in to meet your Self and infinity. It cannot be explained, only experienced.

Now, if you are one with The Source and all that there is, guess what else you are? You are abundant by nature! Let us have a look at your abundance...

Abundance : You have it all

You have seen that you are one with The Source, one with all that is. This makes you abundant. You have also seen how you created reality out of the quantum field simply by using your thoughts, states of being, words and actions. You have also seen how anything is possible when you believe and chose consistently with clarity. All this makes you abundant. At your highest level, you are naturally ever-presently abundant – there is nothing you have to do and you cannot be anything other than abundant.

Let us look at aspects of this abundance and how to make it materialize in your life. You are One with All That Is...

Spend your money gladly, cheerfully, and with excitement. Whether you are buying items or paying bills, be glad that you are doing it. Money runs away from those who feel it is in shortage, those who have negativity towards its use.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Nature is capable of giving you all your desires without losing anything itself. Scarcity is not real, it only appears where we chose to see it.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

The Source of all that is can never run out of creative power and ability. A million times of what has been created can be created again. The supply is unlimited.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Thoughts of scarcity take away abundance from your life. They manifest scarcity into the physical. To avoid scarcity, eliminate all thoughts of competition and instead choose creation. Competition is a statement to the universe that you believe your survival is at risk and there is not enough. So are thoughts of cheating, squeezing, manipulating and taking advantage of people, paying unfairly, coveting other people's property, envy, and the like. These thoughts only create non-wealth consciousness and cause scarcity. You can get temporarily rich this way, but you cannot rise to your full potential this way and indeed, you may even fall.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Never look at the visible supply. Look always at the limitless riches in formless substance, and KNOW that they are coming to you as fast as you can receive and use them. Nobody, by cornering the visible supply, can prevent you from getting what is yours. - Wallace D. Wattles

You are made in the image and likeness of The Source, God. Abundance and affluence are your natural states. In the deepest part of you, you already know this to be so. All you need is to remember this, so as to experience what you truly are.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

The universe has more than enough business and wealth for everyone. Way more than enough. People are not poor because nature is poor. People are poor because their wealth consciousness is poor. Even in a billion lifetimes, let alone one lifetime, you cannot possibly finish the wealth given to you free by Life. But you can 'fail' to receive it by your own thoughts, words, actions, and most of all, your chosen state of being, your 'I Am' statements and truths that you uphold about yourself. The idea that a person fails in wealth building because of competition or other such circumstances is illusionary. The so-called competition and negative circumstances are created by a person who believes in scarcity. They come to such a person in the most amazing way to fulfill the person's self-set limits.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Abundance, affluence and wealth are your birthright.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Poverty is a transgression of the laws of the universe. The universe, by law and design, is not a place where poverty is natural – it is an abnormality.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Do not scare money away by saying and thinking there is not enough of it.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

You cannot even begin to ponder the infinite vastness of the readily and freely available supply of value-creation material and energy you have access to.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Do not manipulate people and things. That is competitive thinking. Creative thinking is more effective and true to the nature of abundance. Competitive thinking makes you think in terms of scarcity that has to be fought for, and that is what you get. Why would you wish to create scarcity?

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Economics teaches about scarcity of resources. None of that is true ! Economics was 'invented' at a time when people believed in scarcity. This belief caused the world to be scarce, to perpetuate an illusion of scarcity. And hence, the study of economics proclaimed that resources are scarce. Economics is derived from observation. It totally ignores First Cause, spirit and state of being. We are only now be giving to see that certain resources can never run out. For example, software, music or other digital content downloaded or broadcast cannot run out. How do you run out of a software download? No matter how many copies you download, there still remains that original copy that everyone is downloading. One copy multiplies as much as is needed without costing the maker any more money. We will soon come to know experientially that if enough of us put our mind on it, we could re-grow the entire earth's forests in a few years, create 'new' water or do anything else. Do not believe in the economics of scarcity. If you do, it will become true for you - a self fulfilling a prophesy of scarcity.

Economics was a study of scarcity at the time when scarcity was all there was. That is why it is failing to apply to New Economy businesses and calculations today. If you do not believe this, have a look at history. At one time, people were sure the earth was flat, and all their 'evidence' at the time told them this was true. Then they believed the sun rotated around the earth, and all their 'evidence' at the time told them this was true, yet we now know that the earth is the one rotating around the sun. Or do we? In other words, whatever we hold as true, is what becomes true, even though it may not be the Ultimate Truth. When we start questioning, we uncover a more 'correct' truth that is closer to Ultimate Truth. There is always room for more revelation – you cannot say that yourcurrent answer is the Ultimate Truth. Our finite minds are incapable of taking in the totality of Ultimate Truth, which is infinite. We can only take small segments of it at a time.

Never stop learning. Always be humble with what you know now, and you will know more. Scientists are only now discovering that this universe is not a four-dimensional one, but a multidimensional one like a hologram. It is our senses that are four -dimensional (length, width, height and time). A person's Self is multidimensional, but their senses on their physical plane are, for most people, four dimensional in their capabilities. The universe itself is multidimensional whereby all possibilities exist all together. Think about that carefully. Scarcity is not a reality; it is a perception of an aspect of that holographic universe. You can always choose which aspect you wish to perceive and experience, by choosing what you wish to truly believe and hold as unquestioningly true.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

There is an infinite source of supply. When you are not having what you would like, know that your thoughts are at fault, not the universe. Accept full responsibility honestly and make amendments. But never talk or think of lack or shortages, for in that thought is the cause of lack and shortages.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Broke is temporary. But poor is a mental condition, a dis-ease of the mind, and is more lasting. Yet, all can be overcome.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

How much is enough? Considering the fact that supply is infinite, then enough is probably the amount that allows you to live as you would wish to live whether you are working or not. You then choose when to play and when to work as you feel like, not because you need money. Hence, conditionality and need move away from you and let you to explore other aspects of life other than money.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Abundance is all there is, and sharing, not owning, is the way to receive this abundance.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Competition is unnecessary. It is a statement of scarcity, a fallacy.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Competition in a business is a statement of scarcity and a bringer of scarcity. Creativity is a statement of abundance, the natural state. Shift from competitive to creative thought and see how that works for you.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

This is a universe of abundance. No one is going to 'take your share' or 'beat you to it'. There is more than enough for everyone. The only time there is not enough, the only time when you are 'beaten to it', is when you think and act competitively instead of thinking and acting creatively and trusting in the abundant nature of The Source. Thinking and acting competitively makes it harder for you to correctly follow the laws of the universe especially the laws of cause and effect, the process of life expressing images of the mind, and of the power of certainty and faith. Thinking creatively and non-competitively helps you be in agreement with these universal laws and processes.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

To you the earth yields her fruit, and you shall not want if you but know how to fill your hands. It is in exchanging these gifts of the earth that you shall find abundance and be satisfied. Yet unless the exchange be in love and kindly justice it will lead some to greed and others to hunger. – Kahlil Gibran

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Out of abundance He took abundance and still abundance remains. – Upanishads

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

All other things held constant, to the extent that an individual or society sees, believes in and acts in abundance, so will they have wealth and happiness.

Again, meditate. It is the fastest way for you to know experientially how abundant you are. These higher concepts cannot be explained and fully understood intellectually. They can only be experienced. They can be talked about using symbols such as words, but the full appreciation and knowing can only come from experience, and all you need to do is go within, meditate, and all the experience you need will be right there. One day, maybe on your first meditation, maybe later, it will definitely happen. This is what the Buddha called enlightenment – the realization of the One.

Talking about happiness, what is it and how does it become you? There is no point to life if you have no joy, for life is joy and joy is life. Lets get happy...

Happiness : Life is Joy and Joy is Life

The essential nature of Life is Joy. Joy is what Life is made up of and vice versa. It is the natural state of all beings. Anything with life (and everything has life) has joy as it's natural state. It is how we are born as children, with a natural ability to live life with carefree abandon and joy. You can re-capture that nature and extend it.

The same laws of the universe that apply to wealth also apply to happiness. You have already seen many of these laws in previous chapters. Apply them to happiness just as you applied them to wealth. This is especially so with the law of cause and effect. If you wish to be happy, cause another to be happy. Conditionality is also an illusion when it comes to happiness. You are not happy because of certain conditions, but certain conditions come into being because you are happy. Happy thoughts and images also result in happy external events and conditions. Remember, too, to act as if you are happy, and to be grateful for all, even before you experience it. And remember to practice detachment. Perhaps the most important thing to remember is that the external world fashions itself to your internal world. If you are not happy with the external world, seek what it is internally that you are not happy with; then choose to be happy about it. Love yourself and the world will love you. Be happy with yourself and the world will be happy about and with you.

How do you do these things? You just do them, Now. Do not complicate this; it is simple. Make the decision right now to be happy with you and to love yourself.

Happiness is a decision. Decide now to be of the state of happiness, and all else will follow.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Happiness is a continuum of moments that are not resisted. If you resist a moment, you will not be happy with it. Also, what you resist persists, what you accept and bring into your light reveals itself and lets go of you. Unconditional love, acceptance, detachment, and tolerance – all these lead to happiness.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Sadness and joy are different grades of the same thing. They just appear to be different things. Hot and cold are actually just graduations of the same thing called temperature. When you express yourself and your desires, you have joy. When you do not, you have sadness.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Follow your desires.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

It has been said that happiness comes from you making things happen for you instead of you waiting for things to happen to and for you.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Balance your body, mind and soul. Without a balance, you may become unhappy. Spend time doing things related to all these three aspects of you. For your body, take care of it, have fun with it, enjoy it, use it, exercise it, feed it well, rest it, and so on. For your mind, continuously feed it with new knowledge, exercise it, think properly and deliberately, rest it, and so on. For your spirit, learn about it, exercise it, meditate and get in contact with it, and so on. And for all three, listen to them and honor what they tell you, and love them.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Joy is your true nature. Another word for your soul is joy. Soul = Joy = Freedom = Soul. The lack of joy is the lack of expression of the soul.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Protect and nurture the environment, nature. Whether it is in your immediate surroundings or around the world, do your part, and do more. The health of your environment influences the health of yourself, which influences the joy of your self. The beauty and comfort of your environment also influences your joy. The joy and harmony in all things that make up your environment influences your joy and harmony. It is all connected.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Love, laughter, sharing, enthusiasm, optimism, and light-heartedness – these things make a person happy. Choose to be these things and you will be happy. Just make the choice to be these things from now on.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Find the humor in everything. Everything has humor in it, even the most ‘serious’ things. Try it. At first, it may be hard to find humor, but soon it will become second nature after you get used to it. And it will liberate you.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Happiness is not found in a circumstance or event. Each event is just that – an event. You choose to experience an event as a happy one, or an unhappy one.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

When faced with an event, choose the response that will bring happiness.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Happiness comes from creating instead of reacting.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Happiness comes from truthful observation of what is within you and outside of you. It comes from being truthful to yourself and everything else outside of you. The truth, literally, sets you free.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Choose to be happy. You are not your circumstances – that is a powerful illusion. Your circumstances are you – that is a truth. Try to understand this. When you change you, you change your circumstances.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Choose to like yourself, to love yourself. Scream aloud several times, ‘I LOVE MYSELF!’ and do it convincingly! Just make the choice, now. Do not complicate it. It is a simple choice. What if there is something about yourself that you do not like? Start liking it, and then change it. See, what you resist will never let go of you. If a person told you not to think of the color red, you will find yourself thinking of the color red. Whatever it is that you do not like about yourself, stop resisting it. Instead, accept it, bring it into your light, love it, and look at it calmly with detachment. Smile with it and befriend it. It will then reveal its secrets to you and let go of you. But you must continuously choose to like yourself fully at all times. This means that you start thinking about the thoughts you have about yourself. Whenever you get a thought about yourself that is negative, end it instantly and go positive. Be deliberate in thought. You become what you think about most often. If you think unloving thoughts about yourself, you become an unloved person. Both your and other people will be unable to love you. It is very simple. Choose well, for it is all within your power to the extent that you choose clearly, consistently, and believably. If you consistently think you are ugly, unwanted, unable to do this or that, it will be so. The universe will conspire to make the powerful thoughts that you have of yourself to become true. The conditions to make them true will arise. Change your mind, and change your world. Choose well.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Live Now, Here. Like Harry Potter was advised by his headmaster, Albus Dumbledore, in the Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone movie, “It does not do to dwell on dreams and forget to live.” Harry Potter found a magic mirror that showed, according to Dumbledore, the “deepest and most desperate desires of our hearts ... but not knowledge or truth.” Dumbledore then cautioned Harry Potter against its use, for although it may have felt comfortable for Harry to spend all day dreaming of his desires, doing so was not living. Living is what allows Life to express itself, and with expression comes joy. It is OK to dream, but live life Now, Here, because the only place you can live life is Now, Here. Dumbledore then explained to Harry Potter that the happiest person was the one who looked into the magic mirror and saw only him or herself, exactly as they were Now, Here. Think about that.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

There is an old saying that says ‘when you laugh, the world laughs with you, but when you cry, you cry alone’. Stop crying and start laughing.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Keep it simple.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Have enthusiasm, live with passion. How? Choose to do so. Just do it.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Change your mind. Start seeing how good things really are and you will have joy. Look at the light and you will never see the darkness. Change your mind; change what you think you see. You can be looking at the same thing and see a happy picture instead of an unhappy one. See the good in everything. See the magic. That is what happy people do.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Joy is what happens to us when we allow ourselves to recognize how good things really are. – Marianne Williamson

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Cultivate your relationships with people. Happy people, statistically and quite obviously, have healthy and happy relationships with friends and family. Love is a powerful force. Be friendly and of unconditional love and you will make friends and have many fantastic relationships. That said, you must always remember that you need nothing outside of yourself to be happy. Do not become a person that relies on others to be happy – that is an addiction and a falsehood, not to mention an unfair pressure placed on others that will only lead to eventual unhappiness. Love yourself, and recognize that your love for others must be unconditional and free. Then be friendly. And keep your freedom of choice – any relationship where you lose your freedom of choice is an unhealthy one that leads to unhappiness. Stable, fair, free and loving relationships on all levels lead to happiness. Think about this: You do not owe anybody anything at all, ever, for any reason. Everything you do for others is a gift to them. And vice versa. Once you understand this statement deeply, you understand unconditional love, one that requires nothing in particular from others, and one that is not pressured to give anything in particular to others, and all that exists are gifts given and accepted cheerfully and naturally.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

From love comes joy. What is love? Love is not a bond; it is a freedom, a liberator, not a binder. It is a free expresser, not a limiter. In the presence of true love, things flourish as they are, perfect.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Fill each other's cup but drink not from one cup. – Kahlil Gibran

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Do not spend any time at all thinking about how unhappy you are or how this, that or the other makes you unhappy. Remember, you become what you think of most of the time.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

The less judgmental you are, the happier you become. The more forgiving you are, the happier you become.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Cherish and nurture your freedom, and let others have theirs as well. Practice unconditional love for yourself and for others. Freedom and love – these are the keys to happiness. Do not cut your freedom short, nor cut another's. True and unconditional freedom and love are the flames that fuel creativity, trust, growth, and expression of spirit, hence joy. It is important to understand the nature of unconditional love and freedom. Love and freedom that comes full of conditions goes against the only constant in the universe: change. Every moment, things change. Change is growth. Conditional love resists change; it is a love of an idea, not a person. It is the love of a past known moment and not a future unknown moment. It is full of fear that the conditions will one day not be met. That fear attracts the very thing that is being feared. This is evident all around our world today. Finally, yet importantly, conditional love and freedom takes away the power to choose happiness no matter what the event is. Happiness is a choice. People who understand this are able to face any situation with joy. Conditionality makes it harder for you to do this. To be happy, start to understand and practice unconditional love and freedom. Start to enjoy watching others grow as they choose to grow, not as you choose them to grow. Start to enjoy the unknown moment of the future, and stop clinging onto a past known moment. Start creating instead of reacting.

Give, give, and give. Giving is another powerful key to happiness.

One of the best ways to become wealthy and happy is by practicing meditation every day. Meditation puts you in touch with your higher Self, and the teachings in this book become you, experientially, in every cell of your body. They no longer are theoretical constructs for they become you. You no longer have to struggle to practice and remember them, for they are you. Start meditating, and one day soon, you will have this happen to you. The recommended meditation technique here is Vipassana (mindfulness/insight) meditation.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Spread your joy. Make others happy. It will come back to you sevenfold.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Whatever it is that you wish others to recognize and see in you, recognize it and see it in them.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Compliment others every day. Find something to compliment. Do it genuinely.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Consider this: In Ultimate Reality, there are no rights or wrongs, no shoulds or should nots. There are no accidents or coincidences or good or bad luck – all events are perfect outcomes of universal law that never fails or errs. It is our choices and goals that make a thing right or wrong, good or bad, in the pursuit of that goal or choice. For example, killing is a perfect outcome of universal law and it is not, in itself, wrong. But if as a society we wish to promote peace, happiness and prosperity, then killing is wrong. Our choices make a thing right or wrong. But on its own and without our choices, a thing is just a perfect outcome of universal law.

Also consider this: Change is all there is. That includes what society considers acceptable or not. Even what looks like an acceptable form of behavior now was at some time in the past unacceptable, and will some day become unacceptable. And vice versa. Also, what is acceptable here may not be acceptable somewhere else, or at another time or place in the day. Think about this on a global, racial, sexual, economic status, and age scale. Then ask yourself why.

Also consider this: To the extent that you make your own choices instead of taking the choices passed on to you by others, you will be happy, growing and free.

What is 'should'? What is 'can'? Why? Who are you? Why? Why? Think about all these things. Think about them with detachment. Observe them truly. Within those answers, you will find liberation, power, love and happiness. The more you choose for yourself what your life events are, based on your truths and not the truths of others, the happier you are.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

You learn to love by loving. You just do it. It is not complicated unless you complicate it. So, do not complicate it.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

You need not wait a single moment to start being happy. How fantastic is that! Right now, right here, you can make that choice. You need nothing outside of yourself to be happy and wealthy – it is all inside. The outside simply responds to allow you to experience your internal state physically.

The truth is, the happy get happier because they know how to be happy, and the troubled get more troubled because they pour all their life energy into their troubles. – Susan Page

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Remember the dangers of wanting. Never want happiness or anything else. A state of want is a perpetual state of never having, and a declaration of not having. Instead of wanting, desire and intend with detachment.

Real Joy comes from within, from Being. Pleasure and pain come from without, from things outside of you. Joy never stops being joy. It is the nature of spirit, of being. It is not affected by external things. Once you are present in Now and aware and in touch with your Self, the joy will be everywhere in you and it shall never stop. It never had stopped and never can stop anyway, but you can be blind to it by not being Here, Now, fully present. Joy is an eternal state, in Now. It is not in the past or future, for those are ‘times’ that do not exist, except only in the mind.

Please and pain on the other hand are external. They are also complimentary. The same thing that gives you pleasure gives you pain. Think about it. Whatever external thing gives you please, when it is not there you feel pain, you feel the pain of not having it. The same thing gives you pleasure and pain. Or the thing that gives you pain, when it is not there you feel pleasure. The same thing gives you both. All external things do this and that is why people are often feeling unsatisfied. However, once you touch your Self and live Now, real Joy comes to the surface, and that can never change to pain. From that point on, everything will become enjoyable, even the most ‘painful’ things will cease to bring suffering to you and you will marvel at a ll life. Joy is Being, and Being is Isness, Now. From that point on, you shall be happy with all being, resisting no present moment but creating your next moments in a powerful way through true choice.

Resisting what Isness is futile. Resisting Now is painful. What do you expect to gain out of resisting what Is? You cannot undo it. So why bother? Yet, when you touch your Self and feel Joy, you shall not need any intellectual conviction to stop resisting Now. You shall just naturally love all being.

Why does the same thing give you both pain and pleasure? It is because of the mind living outside the moment of Now. For example, if you like a certain thing that gives you pleasure, when you have that thing you enjoy it (unless you worry about losing it). When you do not have it and you let your mind escape Now and go into the past and future thinking 'it was great when I had that thing and I really wish I had it now. I look forward to when I will next have it. I do not like not having it now', you start getting into 'problems'. When you think like that, you totally miss the joy of Now, what Is. And that 'gap' between Now, Isness' and a past and future that only exist in mind is the cause of pain, anxiety and dissatisfaction. Joy is always in the moment of Now. It is ever-present, but you can choose not to see it. When you are out of mind, of no mind, you are Being, Now, in harmony with all else that Is, Now. In that state, you are in the best position to enjoy Now and also create the next Now in the most powerful way, free of worry, anxiety and negativity. The mind is a tool, and you should activate it to create an intention of the next Now. This very quick and detached thinking should not take any more than a few seconds every now and then. If you use your mind to constantly ramble on inside your head thinking about the past and future, all you do is live in the past, worry about the future, and lose Now and joy. And anyway, that is no good formula for creating a future. All problems exist only in the mind – they cannot exist in Now. In Now, you always pass. You cannot fail Now. Not two seconds from now, or five hours from Now, but right Now. All problems exist outside of Now, in the mind, when you use the mind incorrectly.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

All other things held constant, to the extent that an individual or society loves unconditionally, causes each other happiness, and lives Now, so will they have wealth and happiness.

Remember, Life is a celebration, and joy makes for celebration. Joy is spirit being expressed in the ways it likes to and desires to. Express your spirit and let others express theirs !

Well, we started with money, went on to larger things, and now we shall go back to money. Money is not the real thing; it is only a symbol of the real wealth inside us. We have so far been looking at what makes up the real thing. Even though money is not the real thing, we still need to know how to use this money. It is a full circle, a full cycle. For money is the end of many other things that make up wealth consciousness, but it is the beginning of the experiencing of wealth consciousness as material wealth.

Money is a symbol of wealth and the beginning of the experiencing of wealth, so that we may know how wealth tastes like experientially. Money has two uses. One is to allow us to exchange our gifts. The other is to allow us to experience wealth. Through this experience, we are able to increase our wealth consciousness and love it even more. Wealth consciousness begets wealth and money, which begets wealth consciousness, and the cycle goes on. It is a full circle, a full cycle. So, we go back to money...

Money : How to use the symbol

This is worth repeating, for repetition causes internalization: Money is not the real thing; it is only a symbol of the real wealth inside us. We have so far been looking at what makes up the real thing. Even though money is not the real thing, we still need to know how to use this money. It is a full circle, a full cycle. For money is the end of many other things that make up wealth consciousness, but it is the beginning of the experiencing of wealth consciousness as material wealth. Money is a symbol of wealth and the beginning of the experiencing of wealth, so that we may know how wealth tastes like experientially. Money has two primary uses. One is to allow us to exchange our gifts. The other is to allow us to experience wealth. Through this experience, we are able to increase our wealth consciousness and love it even more. Wealth consciousness begets wealth and money, which begets wealth consciousness, and the cycle goes on. It is a full circle, a full cycle.

Let us spend some time on money...

Do not be ashamed of money. Do not act as if you are ashamed of it. Hiding money, handling it as if it was dirty, being dishonest with money and other similar attitudes and acts are all detrimental to you if you wish to acquire wealth. This is not a call for you to start bragging, it is a call for you to be honest in all ways with your money. Be honest to the money and about the money. Things that lead to dishonesty with and about money, or things that stem from it, eventually damage your wealth.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

I LOVE MONEY AND MONEY LOVE ME! Scream this enthusiastically, repeatedly, every now and then, until all feelings of ridicule and guilt and fear of money eventually leave you.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

As you become wealthier materially, it may be in your best interests, depending on where you live, to have offshore specialists look into your affairs and structure them for maximum safety and benefits. Vehicles such as trusts and holding companies in offshore jurisdictions have enabled wealthy people to have peace and continued prosperity for generations. Remember that presently we do need governments and we must pay our fair part to keep them running. It is to our advantage to have government. But government was created to serve its people fairly, and when it ceases to act in such a way, then it becomes your biggest hindrance and stressor. And because government is run by human beings capable of error, government can sometimes oppress instead of enhance. They can sometimes waste instead of create. They can sometimes make legal laws that are unfair and unjust, even if it is only to a proportion of a population. That is why it is to your advantage to structure your affairs very early on in such a way that you are both within and outside of government control, instead of remaining totally within government's control.

That freedom is sometimes the key to growing wealth. Sometimes it can even save you from losing your wealth. This call to look offshore is not a call to greed and anarchy; it is a call for freedom and fairness. For if you cannot guarantee that your government will be fair at all times to you, you should then guarantee that you can step aside or outside safely in the event that it is not. There is no point in taking an unnecessary and lethal blow to your finances in the name of patriotism. Options enable choice. Without options, you cannot choose. Always ensure that you have options in everything.

In regards to wealth and many other matters, the options you should seek to guarantee are the option to travel at will when you need to, to live in a place where you are happy and safe, and to handle your finances in the way that best suits you and your society, in your fair judgment. The way to guarantee those freedoms, those options, is to have two legal passports from two separate countries, legal residency capability in two countries with unrelated jurisdiction, and offshore bank accounts and offshore holding or processing companies.

Asset and income protection arrangements are much like insurance, by the way. You do not insure your house against fire after it burns down; you do it before the fire, in case a fire ever comes your way. But never forget that you have an interest in paying something fair in taxes to keep your government healthy. Even if you find yourself in a position whereby you can escape all taxes, it is a good idea to voluntarily pay about 10% of your income in taxes.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Pay your fair share of tax cheerfully, for it keeps the society alive and functioning in order. It is up to you to determine what fair is. Over the ages, sages and teachers have taught that 10% is a fair amount. Even religious texts have recommended similar 10% arrangements. Mathematically, 10% is also optimal for all involved.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Of your income, devise ways to ensure that you pay about 10% of it in taxes, that you give about 10% to charity, you invest 10% in long-term growth and wealth building investments, and you use the remaining 70% to live, grow and enjoy life. The added bonus to you using your money to enjoy life is that as you spend money on things you make others wealthier! As you get immensely richer, you may live on a lower percentage of your income then give and invest more. These ratios were designed, over the ages, to give you and your world the best growth and wealth possibilities for all.

Keep accurate personal and business accounts. Know what happens to your money and where it goes and comes from. Knowing is the first step to mastery of anything, and not knowing where your money goes is crippling. If your cash out exceeds your cash in, your upkeep, staying alive, will be your downfall. You cannot plan and analyze what you do not know.

Be careful, however, about managing your finances. This is not a call to stringent cent counting and misery. Do not let your keeping of accurate financial records turn you into a miser, a person who believes that money is in short supply. Keeping accounts is just that – keeping accounts.

Surround yourself with very wise advisors, associates and employees. The wise person keeps wiser counsel. Have wise counsel in all fields - business, accounting, tax, law, trusts, investments, etc. Pay them well, pay them on performance, and give them bonuses when they deserve it. Remember, wealth usually flows to those with right knowledge, but the person who gets that wealth does not necessarily have to be the possessor of the knowledge. The wealthy person is often the one who brings together teams of knowledgeable people, even though he or she may not possess the knowledge personally.

Learn to multiply your efforts. One of the best ways to do that is to delegate massively. Delegate almost everything. Every person has certain unique capabilities. But they also share many other things with every body else. For example, Einstein's special gift was in physics. That is where he varied most with the rest of us. But on all other things, that variance was very low. He walked, wrote, saw, cleaned the house, and did other chores just a little better or a little worse than we all do. Now, in a day, Einstein insisted on doing absolutely everything in his 'business', from thinking about physics to drawing charts that anyone else could have drawn, to sweeping his floor, and all that, he would have ended up with far less time to spend on his unique talents, and therefore have realized less from them. A person's unique talents are what make the person and the world wealthy.

Wealthy people usually look at themselves honestly and see what it is that they most enjoy and what it is that they are a whole lot better at than most other people. This is an honest look. What they are best at may be strategy, marketing, innovation, horticulture, flying, driving, or anything else. They may also be good at a whole lot of other things, maybe even slightly better than most people, but that is beside the point. The point is what it is that they are fabulous at – not just good at, but fabulous. That is the question. The only other question is, what is it that they really enjoy and cannot stop doing. They do not say, 'I can clean the floor better than my cleaner' for even if that is true, it is self-defeating. All that matters is what they are better at, by far, than anyone else, and what they enjoy. Then they do only that thing and they delegate everything else. They do not worry that people will not do the rest as good as they would have.

Imagine if Bill Gates tried to do everything at Microsoft. What good would that do him or the rest of us? A person such as Bill Gates is focused on what he or she does best and what he or she enjoys best. People like that delegate all the rest, even if they can do some of the rest better than their helpers can or employees can. In addition to that, people like that recognize that there are many things that other people are a lot better at doing than they themselves are. Delegation multiplies efforts and results. Put it in your thinking and your goals to delegate almost everything in your business except for the one thing you are exceptionally good at and what you most enjoy (even if it is just dreaming up new ideas).

To the extent that you delegate to the right people so shall you become more productive and hence wealthier.

Another way to look at the making of money is viewing it as a change of thought causing a shift in the way energy in the universe is exchanged. This is not so that you may start living like this, but just so that you may see that simply changing your thought causes a re-arranging of the energy in the universe and leads to increased wealth. Let us see how that works historically.

Thousands of years ago, people were hunters and gatherers. This was a dangerous and unpredictable way to live. The desire to have more stability and safety caused human beings to think 'Why do I have to chase after these goats in the wild every day?' That led to the idea that goats could be kept at home, domesticated. Now, instead of chasing after the goat everyday across the grass plains, man brought the goats together in an enclosure and fed them the same grass from the plains. Even before this new idea, there was always an availability of grass, land and goats – but no one had thought of changing their arrangement, of domesticating the goats. The idea simply changed the way they exchanged each other, the way the different forms of energy was exchanged. A desire for a better life caused a thought that caused betterment in the standard of living, using the same material that was always there. A change of thought pattern caused this.

Next, the human beings desired to reduce their hardships further by acquiring items they needed but did not have. They first did this by going to war with tribes that had these items. Then they desired a much safer way to acquire these items, which led to the idea that they could trade. Again, they improved their lives simply by rearranging their thoughts, causing a change in the way energy in various forms was exchanged.

Trade went along fine; the only problem being the long distances it took a person to carry a goat to exchange it with a bag of wheat in the next village. The desire to exchange faster and more efficiently led to the idea that instead of everyone walking all over the place, they can instead meet at one central spot and show all their goods and trade. A market was formed. Again, look at it closely. All the ingredients had always ever existed, but the idea that it could be done had not. The desire for better caused the idea that caused a shift in the way energy forms were exchanged. Remember the law that says energy is neither created nor destroyed it only changes form. A market did not drop from the heavens on this people. They simply changed their thought pattern and it was done.

Today, the desire to trade even faster has caused us to have currency markets and stock exchanges. Imagine the time when a trader had to walk for half a day to the market, sell one cow, then walk back half a day home. Next came trucks, and farmers could drive several cows to the market and be back home early enough to do another trip. Then came futures and options exchanges, which enabled people to buy and sell thousands of livestock futures and options in seconds without having to get up or move a single cow ! Yet, nothing dropped from the heavens. It was all right here. People just desired different, and that desire took an infinite coordination of dozens of seemingly unrelated events to end up with a high-tech futures and options market and the zero need to move the cow at the time of trade.

The sequencing of everything to end up with a result that enabled faster trade and profiting was unpredictable. But because the desire was there, nature fulfilled. But let us go back to the past. The agrarian revolution came along and people, from their desire for more wealth, ended up with ways to improve farming. Again, they simply desired, and that desire led to thought and what had always been there was re-arranged. Nothing dropped from the heavens. But even then, it would take a king three generations to build a good sized home and a fair collection of possessions. The average person did not even think it was possible for them to live in a multi-room brick house with certain amenities – that was for kings and queens.

Today, life is different. We are born assuming, from observation, that a house is something that we shall automatically always live in and that we shall automatically have cloths and certain other things that were reserved for royalty back then. It does not even cross your mind for a moment that you can lack certain things – yet people in the past struggled for generations to get those same things. We have the certainty that they did not have.

The point here is to see the powerful effects of certainty on an individual level and on a wider scale. Certainty of thought causes massive shifts in the way energy is re-arranged. A massive up-shift in certainty of thought and in desire for better always leads to a massive shift in the way energy is re-arranged for a better life. Take, for example, the emergence of the IT boom. You had Bill Gates and hundreds of other young people making massive amounts of wealth in very short periods. People would become billionaires in few years, instead of four generations as it used to take. And as fresh kids out of college watched this happen, they believed they could do it. And many of them believed. And a whole range of new businesses was formed in no time at all. Young people in their twenties were becoming millionaires by the dozens every day. Yet, nothing new dropped from the heavens in those few years. All it took was massive desire, belief, and change of thought. Then the energy that was always there in various forms was re-arranged into a whole bunch of new forms that led to wealth. And just as millions of people today live better than a few kings lived in the past, the very near future will have billions of average people living better than millionaires live today. And nothing new will be dropped from the heavens. We will simply desire better, have certainty on a higher level because we are now beginning to understand how it all works, and we will change our thoughts the right way, and it will just happen in unpredictable and powerful ways.

All that needs to exist is right here and we have it all. The energy packets that make up everything around us, including our bodies, have an unlimited capability to take unlimited and unimaginable forms, as long as the desire is there. They have their own intelligence, and they obey our desires with skill that we cannot imagine. If you analyze any substance at all, from light to thought to metal to flesh, it is all made up of energy packets that that 'collect' into atoms, cells and so on. But the amazing thing about these energy packets is that, unlike the forms that they build up, they are not confined in time and space. In other words, they can move from point A to B without crossing the space in between. And they are not confined within the object that they make up. In other words, the energy packets making up your finger right now are not the same ones that will make it up in a few seconds. They can flash up in your finger then flash up in another person's belly a moment later, or in your light bulb in the house. You do not have your own bunch of energy packets, so to speak. In fact, they are not really particles in the sense that you think of particles. You are forever-sharing these packets with everyone and everything else at all times. And they can 'travel' forwards and backwards into time. This is what we, and all matter, are made up of – energy packets flashing in specific patters to form the appearance of shapes. The information that dictates these specific patters is partially made up of our thoughts and partially the thoughts of the rest of the universe.

That is why medicine is now discovering that our thoughts are very much linked to our state of health. And science is discovering that nothing being observed can be observed independently of the observer, because the observer's expectations and thoughts influence the object under observation.

Money is absolutely linked to our thoughts, desires and certainty, and history and science can prove that to you now. It is in your best interests to improve your own wealth consciousness and that of the world. Your becoming wealthy makes the world wealthy, and the world becoming wealthy makes you wealthy with a whole lot less effort. Look at history to prove this.

A major key to building wealth is in making your money work for you, instead of you working for your money. If you work for five days in a week and spend all your income without investing any of it, you will have forever lost those five days of work. Forever. Wealthy people take a portion of the income from each day and put it into investments that grow on their own, automatically and without any further work, over a long-term period. That way, a portion of each day that you work for money ends up working back for you for many years to come. That is a major key to wealth, getting a percentage of your income every day to work back for you without your intervention.

You do this by taking at least 10% of your daily income before taxes and bills, and putting that into a long-term investment for a minimum of about three years. Good investments include stocks, mutual funds, certain types of bank accounts that have high and above -inflation interest rates, real estate investment vehicles, bonds, royalty-producing assets, self-maintaining businesses, and so on. These investments do not require you to work for your money. You simply invest, walk away, and your money grows all on its own.

Even one dollar can turn into a million dollars in a certain amount of years at a certain compound interest rate. One dollar, just one dollar, can grow into a million dollars all on its own without your intervention. You would be pleasantly surprised to know that a single dollar placed into an investment that grows at 20% a year will become $1 million in 75 years. That is just one dollar! All you would need to do is leave it alone, go away, go to sleep for 75 years, just leave it alone. When you return it will be $1 million without any effort from you, other than your placing that single dollar at the beginning !

Now, if instead you put in a dollar every single day into the same 20% a year growth investment, you would end up with $1 million in 32 years instead of 75. In fact, a dollar a day would become $1 billion in 66 years. A higher interest rate would dramatically shorten that time.

This shows you that you can never have too little to start with. Whatever your income today, force yourself into the habit of investing 10% of your income before you pay bills or taxes or anything else. Pay yourself first – it is your money and your life. And it gets even better. The 1990s was an era where stocks rose phenomenally. In the 1990s decade, over 200 stocks rose by 1000%, some by up to 20,000%. Many fell again in 2001 but on the long-term, all good companies always rebound to even higher heights. People in the 90s invested various amounts and found themselves wealthier for that. Some invested just $50 a week, and if that was their 10%, that was good enough. It grew. Others invested more. $10,000 invested just once at the beginning of 1990 in certain stocks turned out to be valued at around $5 million by the end of the 90s. Others turned a few million dollars into well over one billion in the same period. All this wealth growth happened without any extra effort except putting money away into the investment.

These people were not doing anything secret – they were investing in publicly available investments. They were investing in well-selected shares in the stock market – and anyone can do this. You can do it as well starting now. Just remember, choose your investments well, invest consistently, and put 10% aside from every single paycheck or income. Consistency is the key. Compound interest will always work for you without asking anything from you. Your only part is to be consistent, to choose good investments, and to stay put on the long term. Short-term investing usually does not earn as much as long-term investing and it is usually a lot riskier.

Taxes and the government. We need a government; that is for sure. Without governments, society would not be able, at our present stage, to organize infrastructure development, security and so on. But there is such a thing as wasteful government, or too much government. Just because it is a government does not mean it is always right, that it sets the right amount of taxes we should pay, and that it uses that money wisely without waste. So, what is in our best interest, you and I, is to figure out how much we need to pay in tax. We need to keep government alive and healthy and serving us well, without paying too much to the point that we don't have enough to invest and enjoy life, while government has too much and wastes it on activities such as building weapons of mass destruction and the like.

Governments across the world have tax rates ranging from zero to 80% or so. Taxes are usually a person's biggest single expenditure. Within each country, you can arrange your affairs in ways that legally minimize your tax amount with the help of professional tax advisors. Winston Churchill once said that no person has the legal or moral obligation to arrange his or her affairs so that the government can put its biggest shovel in. I personally believe that the magic formula is 10:10:10:70. That is 10% of your income in taxes, 10% in charity, 10% in long-term investments, and 70% for your enjoyment and spending, for that is what life is all about, enjoying your life, not struggling with it. Spending any less than 10% on government would kill it, and more than that gives it too much money and it is because of this excess that we have, for example, too many deadly nuclear weapons that never really helped us. Military expenditure is the biggest total government expenditure worldwide. Yet, military expenditure does not circulate in the economy or benefit us as much as other expenditure. A nuclear missile built and never fired is dead money. It just stays in a silo waiting to be fired. Yet, the day it is fired it causes even more destruction. Weapons just put us in a state of fear either way you look at it. The way to prevent war is not to build weapons but to eliminate borders, division, and economic differences. The U.S. would have been far weaker and less stable today if it did not unite its states a couple of hundred years ago. Before becoming a federation of states, the U.S. had civil wars and travel and commerce barriers within itself.

So, that is 10% of your money going to government as taxes. After that, do not forget to spend at least another 10% on charity, doing things to uplift your society and hence yourself. And invest at least 10% in long-term good investments. Then enjoy and spend the rest!

Be cheerful in your spending – your spending causes the increased income of others and drives the economy. Imagine what would happen if everyone stopped spending! The more we spend, the more the energy is exchanged, and the more we all get wealthy. At first, this new 10:10:10:70 arrangement may be a little difficult for some people to execute because they are spending all or almost all their money at the moment and have not arranged their affairs for optimal taxation. But within a short time, it is easy to change habits to fit into this new format.

Knowing the real difference between an asset and a liability is another key to wealth. An asset is anything that creates net wealth or net income for you. An asset is anything that puts more money into your pocket than it took out from it. A liability is something that does not do that. A liability is anything that takes money away from your pocket without putting back into your pocket more than it took. By that definition, some of the items that people consider as assets are really liabilities. Homes on mortgage are liabilities (they are the bank's asset). Cars are liabilities – they take more from you in cash than they give back.

Wealthy people obviously have more assets than liabilities. That is just obvious. Can you imagine being wealthy when your true liabilities are more than your true assets?

The assets grow the wealth for wealthy people. Analyze your life and re-classify everything in it as an asset or liability as we have defined them. Always maintain more assets than liabilities; otherwise, you will have zero or negative wealth (debts). It is such a simple formula.

There is nothing wrong with buying liabilities. Indeed, many of life's most enjoyable things such as beautiful homes and boats and cars are, by our new definition, liabilities. But they make life enjoyable. So go ahead and enjoy, but never let your liabilities, as we have defined them, exceed your assets, as we have defined them, otherwise you will soon end up in negative wealth. Always maintain that positive balance. If you wish to have that nice home, the way to get it is to first work on having an asset that produces an income that is high enough to finance your mortgage. Then use it to pay for your house payments. So, get assets first, and use them to finance liabilities.

By the way, you do not count yourself as an asset. Getting a job to earn money to pay your mortgage is not the way. That is called working for your money, and it is an often unhealthy and dangerously trapping cycle to get into. Your money should always work for you. The money you earn with your mind and hands, on your job or work, is to be used to acquire investments and assets. These assets and investments then generate income, on their own without much further intervention from you, to buy the liabilities for you. You do not work for your liabilities. You work for your assets and your assets work for your liabilities.

If at present you do not know how to do that, then get books and advisors who can show you how to do that in your situation. Good assets to acquire or build include stocks, mutual funds, certain types of bank accounts that have high and above-inflation interest rates, real estate investment vehicles, bonds, royalty-producing assets, self-maintaining businesses, and so on.

Be comfortable with money, feel free around it, talk about it, treat it and love it as you would a close friend. In that attitude, you will attract it. If you fear it or refuse to love it, you repel it.

- I AM WEALTH. I AM ABUNDANCE. I AM JOY -

Some people have a problem with loving money. The problem is that they do not love it. To attract money you need to love money. To attract anything, loving it is the fastest way to do it. It is also true that you also attract what you fear. But when you fear money you do not attract money, you attract whatever it is that you fear about money.

Some people say that loving money is wrong. They often say 'the love of money is the root of all evil.' Analyze that statement. The love of money in itself is not evil. It can just be the root to evil. Money itself is also not evil, but it can cause coveting, greed and subsequently crime. Loving money is perfectly healthy as long as you do not develop that into greed and crime. In fact, loving anything, not just money, when taken in the wrong way can be the root to crime. People have killed over the love of their romantic partners, property and religion. Yet, there is nothing evil about loving partners, property or your faith. It is never love that is wrong, nor the item being loved. It is only when that love is expressed in an unhealthy manner that its effects can be considered wrong.

So feel free to love money, genuinely love it, but watch yourself and do not let that love turn to greed and covetousness. But love it. Money moves to those who love it most.

Money is a lovely thing. It is a statement of abundance, not scarcity. Abundance is the natural state of The Source. It frees people to pay attention to other things in their life. Life is fantastic, so full of so much that we have not yet explored. Money frees you to explore avenues of life that you previously did not have a chance to explore. Money also gives people the ability to express their love, to give, to create, to share, to uplift others. Love money and it will love you.

A very important and fundamental key to wealth is multiple sources of income. Build multiple sources of income for your life. There are numerous good books on this. Multiple sources of income are your key to financial freedom. They are a manifestation of your dynamic, free and multidimensional nature.

More accurately, make sure that each income stream is a business not a job. A job is something that requires you to be there for it so that it can make money for you. A business is something that once set up, does not need you to be there to keep going or growing. A job needs you, a business does not – that is the difference. Some businesses are actually jobs. You may own a business that is a job for you. It needs you to tend to it; without your constant attention, it falls. Jobs take your time and freedom; businesses give you time and freedom. A person with multiple streams of income from multiple businesses ends up with free time that he or she can use to live well and to launch more businesses if need be. Jobs never allow such liberties of free time to diversify and be free to enjoy other aspects of life.

So, have multiple sources of income, but ensure each source is independent of you and has been built to do well without your constant attention.

Remember, have multiple streams of income that do not need you to be present for them to keep producing. To have multiple sources of income, simply desire it to be so, make it part of your goals, visualize and start buying books, magazines and talking to people. The right businesses, investments and sources will then simply start coming to you. And always keep wise counsel – for everything, have a person who is of wealth consciousness and of specialization in that area to advise and counsel you. Learn also to trust your feelings but not your emotions. Follow your desires. It is easy.

Of highest importance, remember always that the universe gives you exactly, exactly, what you are and think. Read this twice: If you believe that money is bad, is unworthy, is evil, is shameful or anything else negative, and if you believe that you are none of those things yourself, you create a conflict within you. You would be giving the universe the message that you are a 'good and positive' person and that money is a 'bad and negative' thing. In such a case, in the interests of honoring your conflicting message, the universe would give you conflicting results and you would end up with little money. You must honestly and genuinely identify your 'values' with the 'values' you assign to money. If you believe you are a 'good' person, then truly believe money is a 'good' thing. And vice versa. Those who believe they are good people and that money is bad end up with little money. Those who believe they are bad people and money is for good people end up with no money. Those who feel they love money and money loves them, that it is all 'good' or 'bad' just as they are, as one, are the ones that end up with it.

The other thing to always remember, still on the same exactness topic, is that if you believe in abundance you shall have it, and if you do not you shall not have it. You must seek to understand intricately the abundance of the universe. See it, feel it, understand it, be it. You get exactly what you think and are. To the extent that you think of and believe in shortages, you shall have them. To the extent that you think of and believe in abundance, you shall have it.

All other things held constant, to the extent that an individual or society understands and uses money in the right productive and multiplicative way, so will they have wealth and happiness. That was a brief overview on how to handle the physical aspects of wealth consciousness. There is a lot more to know on specific aspects of money and business, depending on what your business interests are. Many books have also been written worldwide on almost every current business topic – so you will never lack the information you need when it comes to the handling of the physical aspects of wealth. The book you are reading now was primarily to take you on a quantum leap into the source of wealth – the non-physical aspects of wealth consciousness that so many others often ignore or are unaware of. Combine this Wealth Consciousness knowledge you now have with the appropriate books and information you can get your hands on regarding your chosen purpose and ventures and you cannot possibly fail to be wealthy. It is impossible to fail.

Well, we have come full circle and we are at the end of this journey into wealth consciousness. But this is not the end. Life is eternal and infinite. At the end of every truth is the beginning of a new truth. The quest can never end; it can only get larger and more enjoyable. This is the beginning of a new and beautiful journey for you, not the end of it. But always remember to keep balance. Balance your quest for expansion of wealth consciousness with quests for other expansion. Enjoy life and enjoy your time here on earth. Only through balance can you find true joy and true abundance and wealth.

So, what is next after this? A lot! Turn the page and see...

What are you waiting for? What is holding you back? You need nothing outside of yourself to be where you wish to be. It is all inside you. Change your mind, Now. Be, Think, Speak, and Act in the correct way. It is not complicated so do not complicate it. You just be it and do it, Now, and the rest will follow. Be Here, Now, fully.

The Journey Has Only Just Begun

I hope you have really enjoyed and benefited from this little book. Keep re-reading it a little every day for that 'ah-ha!', for that eureka to happen !

Just a quick word about the material you just read. These are invitations to your truth. They have been taught in various forms and ways and parts over the ages by masters, teachers, sages, gurus, guides and others. You can rely on them as being of good repute. Many are ancient and cosmic advise from wide and far, over thousands of years. But only you can be your own truth, your own way. There are no shoulds and should nots in Ultimate Reality. And change is all there is. Which all means that truth changes (but not the Ultimate Truth). As uncomfortable as that sounds, it is actually empowering and liberating. So, if you find that these truths and universal laws (and some personal suggestions and business tips that I occasionally added) do not ring true to you, do not force them on yourself. They may not be your truths yet. But do not judge them or discard them. When and if it is your time, they may ring true to you. You are your own test and determiner of your truth. If they ring true to you, I am very happy for you! either way, I wish you all the best and the highest.

What Your First Step, Right Now, Can Be

The very first thing you can do, right now, is to do the determination of your purposes in life and do the goal setting discussed before. Re-read those sections

In your journal, write down your purpose or purposes clearly.

Then make your goals list in your journal that you will use exclusively for your goals and thoughts and events recording. List them, aiming for 5,000 goals or so (even the tiniest ones, list them down), all of them in the target date of Now. Put the reasons as instructed, as many reasons for each goal as you can come up with. Follow the instructions given before carefully.

Then get on the Internet and on magazines and so on and find accurate images you can paste in your journals depicting your goals. Then spend 20 minutes each day cruising through your goals and images, and some more time closing your eyes and daydreaming them.

Your images build your life, and until this becomes absolutely second nature, you will have to engage in these exercises. They are fun! They may seem like a childish waste of time, but they are more effective than anything else commonly available to you.

Do this daily to reprogram your subconscious. Also read a bit of this book daily. Ideally, do both of these things in the morning before you start your day and before you go to bed at night.

Do not underestimate the power of re-reading this material a little every day. You may think you have got it all after a couple of reads but you have only begun to scratch the surface. Even after the 30th read you would be finding amazing new truths that would make you wonder how you ever have missed them the last time you saw those sentences. Consciousness unfolds in layers, and a sentence of hidden truth may make superficial sense now in the brain, and much later when you see it again it may become you instead of being just a concept to you, and you will feel a buzz and the knowledge will, quit literally, infuse every cell in your body. At that time you will be this knowledge, instead of just fleetingly having it in your brain for use when you happen to remember it by chance. This is the cyclic stages of Enlightenment that people refer to, when you realize a universal truth and are it. It happens over and over in layers, like expanding cycles of consciousness.

The other important thing to note is your journal. This is so important as well. Without a journal, as long as this material has not become you and become natural as we have said above, you cannot keep your goals in focus and unwavering, you cannot act on your purpose consistently, you cannot visualize powerfully, and you cannot track and fine tune yourself accurately over time. Once this information becomes you, once you are the information, in every cell of your body, you can stop using journals if you wish.

Some people like to use a textbook or diary as a journal. Some like to use journals made specifically for this type of purpose. Some like to use electronic ones like a PocketPC or Palm Handheld or PDA. Any journal will work well for you if you feel comfortable with it, and as long as it allows portability and the storage of images as well as text.

A Note About Images

We have seen the power of images. But where can you conveniently get instant access to images free for use in your visualization and for pasting in your goals journal? The Internet, of course, and my personal best choice for finding these images is Google's Image Search feature. Go to www.google.com and click on the Images link. If you are having your journal on a PDA, even if it is just a list made up in a Pocket Word file, it will be very easy to use the images right off the Internet. You should also have access to a scanner so that you can clip pictures off magazines of things that you like and scan those images in and add them to your goals. Fulfill every desire by making every desire a goal !

Multiple Sources of Income

As is explained in this book and by many other business leaders and teachers, multiple sources of income greatly speed up your coming into wealth. They allow you extra time to do as you wish with wealth, to live life, and they allow you an opportunity to build more streams of wealth. Of course, they all have to be businesses that can exist without you having to be constantly there all the time to watch them.

Creating multiple streams of income is much easier than many people think it is. It is very easy indeed.

The Golden Age of Humanity

Have you noticed how there is an increase in 'good news' about a coming age of 'awakening' of humanity? Something is definitely in the air. But before we get there, let us look at religious texts and the writings of 'prophets'.

The Bible mentions in several places such as the book of Daniel a coming age where humanity will see a peace and prosperity never before seen, and of a grand scale. The Torah also has a similar mention. Some other religious texts also mention it in various ways all around the world, in many of the world's religions. And then you have seers such as Nostradamus and others who talk of a similar golden age of immense peace and prosperity. And then you have the so-called Bible Code saying something about it. And lastly, you have it mentioned in many best-selling books from dozens of writers such as Neale Donald Walsch and others. Whether or not you believe in all this stuff, I think it is worth asking the questions (1) why the same thing was written about in dozens of 'unrelated' books over millennia and (2) why does it seem to be coming out so strongly now? And why do you have a book such as this one in your hands now, and many more like it available to you within a few clicks of a mouse, in a way that was never there before. Could this be the dawning of a new era ?

Look at history. The evolution of humans has been in stages. Each stage was marked by a significant shift in capabilities, intelligence, lifestyle, and body forms. You know that from history, but it sounds far fetched to think that it can happen again – that we can undergo another huge shift in our being. It sounds even more far fetched that it is happening now, while you are here. And when you consider that each of the last shifts took millions of years to happen, sometimes thousands of years, you think that the next one must take thousands or millions of years. Well, that is looking at the rear view mirror. It is absolutely possible that it can happen within a few generations, within a few decades. Why not ? Besides, even history shows us that the gap between each quantum leap in evolution has been growing shorter and shorter. It started at billions of years between a jump, then down to millions, then down to thousands, and now it may be down to decades. What's more, we have one advantage that the past humans never had – we are talking about it, thinking about it, choosing it, and coordinating it. We can choose how fast or how slow it takes. But one thing is for sure – life has always grown, moved up, without fail.

The collective consciousness of the planet and the universe is always growing. All growth is in stages. Some stages are large and some small. We are now at that stage where we take a large step, a quantum leap. We are now dropping, largely, the illusions that have caused suffering and scarcity. Illusions such as that of separation, of need, and so on are dropping. This is what it is all about: A large drop in illusions and a large increase in consciousness, dimensions and abilities.

Well, it is just a thought. Or is it ?

Spread the Wealth and Happiness !

Tell as many people as you can about this little book and any other good ones you find – the more people that develop wealth consciousness, the better for all of us as a whole.

As of December 31, 2001, only 0.1% of the 6 billion people in the world were significantly wealthy. Yet, 12% of the 6 billion people in the world owned mobile phones, 8% owned email addresses, 11% owned bibles, and almost everybody had access to a radio. Why was it that only 0.1% were wealthy? It was because Wealth Consciousness had never been taught in a clear, easy, complete, and structured way before.

Now you, we, have a chance to make a radically wealthier world. Consider this: The number of millionaires in the world is now rising faster than ever. However, there were only 7 million millionaires in the world, out of 6 billion people. But wealth consciousness is amazing - once you have it you easily grow wealth in multiples. The 200 richest people in the world doubled their worth from 1994 to 1998. The number of millionaires and their wealth grew 18% in 1999 while the rest of the world grew its wealth at just about 3% or so. Simply give a person wealth consciousness and their growth will skyrocket. For all our sake, we need to increase the rate at which people are becoming wealth conscious.

Now, consider this: A third of the world's people lived on less than $2 a day, and 1,2 billion people lived on less than $1 a day as of December 31, 2001. You, we, can easily change this by passing on information that causes an increase in wealth consciousness. It will trickle over - you just do your bit. Imagine how much wealthier you would be if an extra 1 billion people had disposable income and could afford your products and services.

Look at the historical effect of the growth in the world's wealth consciousness: In the 1400s, global income rose at 0.1% per year. Now, it ranges between 3% and 5%. You, we, can increase that dramatically simply by telling the people we know what wealth consciousness is. And it is time we got wealthy younger. The average age of the Forbes's 400 wealthiest individuals was 63. There is no absolute reason why it cannot be 24. And it is time there was more billionaires and trillionaires. Worldwide, there were some 400 billionaires.

That is a lot more than there was in 1980, but there is no reason why this number cannot be in the thousands.

Everything that a person needs to be wealthy is inside of them - they just need to be shown how to use it. You can do that. You can show people simply by passing on this information to them. We are easily passing this information on to 500 million people worldwide - that is only 8% of the world. Any two people anywhere on earth are separated by a maximum of 6 people (6 degrees of separation). The truth is, wealth is infectious and grows exponentially, and everyone can be wealthy - everybody on earth can be very wealthy.

We are entering a new era - one that we can easily make into an era of astounding peace and prosperity for all. A wealthy world is a peaceful and healthy world for all.

Teach and share the contents of this book and others like it. Share personally and also share by using technology - email and the Internet allows us to join with the world. Share with those people you know and those you don't know. Share. Give.

The world's wealth consciousness now is better than it was in 1900, and hence our general standard of living for all of us is much higher. Those who seek to get grand wealth are able to make billions in just a few years instead of in hundreds of years like it used to take.

To make yourself really wealthy, cause the rest of the world to be of high wealth consciousness. The world does not need to be as it is now. There is more than enough supply to make the average person today into a billionaire with billionaire living standards, and make the billionaire of today into a multi-trillionaire.

If you wish to be a multi-trillionaire, cause the world to have billionaire consciousness, and they will afford the currently unimaginable goods and services that you will be selling to them, and have the faith to produce them for you as your employees.

Let us find ways of introducing wealth consciousness education at every level of our education systems. Let us re-work the format of our economics, businesses, and news reporting to align with wealth consciousness. For example, there is really not much of a point in reporting on how much of a recession danger and fear there is. It is a self-fulfilling prophecy. It brings fear into the consciousness and causes worry.

I am also convinced that charities, instead of giving away food alone, should spend half their contributions on distributing study material on wealth consciousness. After all, giving a man fish is very commendable, but showing him how to fish releases him from dependency and poverty and takes him to self-reliance, wealth and growth. It turns him from a receiver into a giver and earner.

There is a lot we can do; we have only just barely begun. But it is a good direction we have all taken.

You can cause a cosmic shift in the world's wealth and happiness by doing one simple thing: tell a few people, pass it on! And that act alone shall change the world and change your world, making it much more wealthy and happy !

Use the Internet, email and SMS text messaging on your mobile phone. We have invented these affordable communication networks around the world as a testimony of our increasing realization that we are one, and as a tool to keep growing in that realization. So use these networks, remember them.

Thank you, enjoy and prosper !
